

JASEN PAGE

Jasen currently lives in Arkansas where he is co-owner of Page and Co. Dance. He is also the founder and president of "Something to Live For", an anti-bullying and teen suicide foundation. When not touring with TOP, Jasen travels as a choreographer and masterclass teacher. Some credits include: 2006 NBA All-Star choreographer, Jam Session, NBA D-League feature dancer/choreographer, WNBA, ESPN, and national winner on both high school and collegiate dance team stages. He has also won numerous awards for his unique style of choreography. High energy and motivating is what you will find with Mr. Page!