

JESSICIA ALLEN

Jessica is from Des Moines, Iowa. She has been dancing since the age of three years old, starting out with tap, jazz, ballet and tumbling. During her school years she achieved many accomplishments in both dance and vocal music, including a runner up finish in the Iowa Idol competition in 2003. She continued to follow her passion for the Arts by starting to teach dance at local studios from the age of 18. She is now the owner of Express Yourself Performing Edge studio and has been teaching for more than 16 years. She is certified through DMA and an active member of the local chapter. Dancing is her passion. For her, working with children every day is such a blessing. In her free time she also enjoys making costumes and traveling with Talent On Parade.
