

MATT BREKKE

Matt lives in Des Moines, Iowa with his family and their dog Mindy the Morkie. He has a BFA in Dance from the University of Arizona and is the co-owner of Brekke Dance Center. At the studio Matt trains dancers to pursue professional careers in the entertainment industry. He is the former President of Dance Masters of Mid-America chapter 34. Matt also teaches across the nation each year guiding dancers through technique and core discipline. His choreography has won awards both regionally and nationally. He enjoys traveling for pleasure and spending time with his family in his off time. Matt has worked for Talent On Parade since he was 16 years old, closing in on his 20th season with them.