

SHELLY BUTCHER

Shelly began her dance training at an early age under the instruction of Tap legends Al Gilbert and Tony Coppola. Though Shelly's emphasis is Tap, she trained in all disciplines of dance. Her innovative hoofing style is new and exciting. Her award winning choreography has been recognized across the country and her quality instruction has lead to numerous National Championships. Shelly is in high demand as a master teacher, choreographer, and adjudicator. She travels nationally teaching master classes for Talent On Parade's Dance Directive. Shelly's choreography has been featured multiple times in Kidz Roc in Branson, Missouri, The Miss Arkansas Pageant, and The Miss America Pageant. Her personal mission is to bring back the importance of Tap dancing by creating an environment that is invigorating, encouraging, and inspiring. She is the former owner/director of Fabulous Feet The Company in North Little Rock, Arkansas.
