

CAMERON RIVERS

Cameron comes with over 22 years of dance training & experience. He is based out of Indianapolis and works with Jen Rivers (his mother & Owner/Director of Turning Pointe Academy of Dance). He has been an instructor and choreographer there for more than 12 years. He has been dancing professionally since the age of 18. He worked with Pacer Entertainment and was on the WNBA Indiana Fever Inferno squad. He has been in "Peter Pan" with Atlanta Ballet, "The Nutcracker" through Ballet International. He has worked with Stiletto Entertainment on Holland America Cruise Line and has done 3 contracts with them. He has been on television dancing with Lady Antebellum during the Walt Disney World Christmas Day Parade. He has been employed by Walt Disney World as he was an equity dancer for their holiday shows. He has done "Celebrate the Season", "Villains Mix and Mingle Live on Stage" and "A Totally Tomorrowland Christmas" where he was the dance captain for the show at Magic Kingdom at Disney World. He has taught and choreographed for studios all over the country. He loves working with kids and giving them his knowledge about dance and the professional dance world. He has had students dance professionally after graduating from the studio and he loves seeing young adults achieve their dreams.
