

EMILY PIKE

Emily Pike began her training as a dancer at Cheryl Priess Dickey's School of Dance in Lincoln, NE under the direction of Cheryl Priess Dickey and Joy Tonniges. While there, she studied jazz, ballet, lyrical, contemporary, tap, hip-hop, and improvisation. She became a member of the CPD Performing Dance Company, competing with the team for many years where she earned multiple national titles as an individual and group performer. Emily then continued her education at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln where she graduated with high distinction with her degree in Psychology, with minors in Dance and Sociology. She has performed at many different events, including the ACE Awards in New York City. She has been a guest instructor for multiple Talent On Parade events, including their national competitions and summer programs. Emily is currently teaching and choreographing for multiple dance studios and teams in Nebraska. She travels throughout the country as a guest instructor, while also tabulating and judging for dance competitions. She is very excited to be a part of Dance Directive and looks forward to working with all of the dancers!
