

JEREMY HANSON

Jeremy began dancing at the age of 2 in a small home studio owned by his mother. After years of conventions and competitions (including Talent On Parade's Dance Directives), he was presented with an opportunity to dance for Prestige Dance Company in Tulsa, OK which would further diversify his training. In 2015 Jeremy began his pursuit in becoming a more technical dancer through strict ballet training in St. Louis, MO. The following year he was invited to attend the summer and year-round program at The HARID Conservatory in Boca Raton, FL where he furthered his ballet training. In 2017, Jeremy was given many opportunities to dance with the Kansas City Ballet Company through their school. The following year he became a Trainee with the Second Company at Kansas City Ballet where he would dance with the company consistently. Ending his year in Kansas City, he was fortunate enough to travel to Moscow, Russia where he would perform the role "Toto" in The Wizard of Oz choreographed by Septime Webre on the infamous Bolshoi stage. He then pursued the opportunity to dance with Louisville Ballet as a Company Artist for the 2019-2020 Season. Jeremy is currently a Freelance Artist in Kansas City, MO where he is performing with several different companies.
