

KATELINN ALMAND *Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

KateLinn is originally from Oklahoma where she grew up dancing on the competition stage. After graduating high school, she moved to Las Vegas, Nevada to attend Theater Arts Preparatory School. After graduating the performing arts program, KateLinn landed her first professional job at 18 years old and has continued to book several performance/teaching/choreography gigs in Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and across the Midwest. KateLinn's credits include performing as a singer/dancer, dancing in the Choreographer's Carnival in Hollywood, working at The Cosmopolitan in Vegas for ShowWorks Entertainment, performing at several other corporate events as well as modeling for various brands like NASCAR, Doucette Entertainment and so much more. She has also choreographed several regional and national level championship routines for several dance teams across the Midwest. In her short choreography career, KateLinn has won several choreography awards and specialty awards for her creative work. While working professionally, KateLinn has proudly earned a business degree and a nutrition degree almost entirely online. She also enjoyed a season on the Oklahoma State University Pom Squad where she was gifted many opportunities to perform for thousands of people and give back to the community through volunteer work. KateLinn has also obtained her personal trainer's certification and a nutrition wellness certification. KateLinn is currently the director of the competitive elite training program for Dream Catchers Dance Company in Oklahoma. Personally, KateLinn enjoys spending free time with her family, newlywed husband, and two dogs!
